

After many years playing in Division 1 of the York Region Soccer League, the Lake Simcoe Rage have finally won the Division 1 Championship. The Rage won the Division with a record of 15 wins and only 1 loss. The Team scored 90 goals over the course of the regular season (YRSL Women's Division record) led by Nicole Laird with 26 goals to earn her the Division 1 scoring title. While the offence was doing their job, the defense led by keeper Dayna Loughlin only gave up 12 goals over the entire regular season.

The Rage beat out teams from Oak Ridges, Innisfil, Thornhill, Richmond Hill, Orangeville, Unionville and East Gwillimbury to win the Championship. With the Championship the Lake Simcoe Rage will be promoted to the Womens Premier Division of the YRSL. The Team would like to thank the Lake Simcoe Soccer Club for all of their support, as well as the many spectators that came out to support the team each week.
